Prior to joining CGI, he was a Vice-President with American Management Systems, Inc. where he held various management and consulting positions in both the government and commercial sector business groups.

Mr. Schindler is currently a board member of the Federal Division of the Information Technology Association of America (ITAA) and of the Professional Services Council (PSC). He holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Computer Science from Purdue University.

CGI profile

Founded in 1976, CGI is among the largest independent information technology (IT) and business process services firms in the world. CGI and its affiliated companies employ approximately 27,000 professionals based in over 100 offices in 16 countries. CGI provides end-to-end services to clients worldwide, utilizing a flexible and cost efficient delivery model that combines on-site and off-site operations.

Services and capabilities

From providing consulting and systems integration services to managing IT and business functions on behalf of our clients, CGI provides an all-encompassing offering that includes the planning, design, implementation and management of highly effective IT environments. Our global delivery capabilities include onsite, home-shore, near-shore and off-shore options, giving our clients the flexibility to choose the model that best meets their needs.

Through our vertical expertise in financial services, government and healthcare, telecommunications and utilities, retail and distribution and manufacturing, we provide clients with a partner that is not only expert in IT, but expert in their industries. This combination of business knowledge and technology expertise allows us to help our clients adapt as their industries change, and in the process, allows us to help evolve the industries in which we operate.
