

CGI HEROadvisor™ for resource optimization

Many provider organizations must identify 15-20% cost reductions in the next 24 months to survive. Find the optimal path to that goal with CGI HEROadvisor™.

Healthcare organizations seek better ways to manage resources, reduce costs, increase margin, and improve forecast accuracy. CGI has partnered with River Logic, Inc. to deliver CGI HEROadvisor, a suite of enterprise planning, decision support and business intelligence (BI) solutions designed specifically to meet these needs.

CGI HEROadvisor is a highly differentiated solution built on River Logic's unique fifth-generation programming language. Delivering true predictive and prescriptive analytics capabilities, CGI HEROadvisor provides clients with the ability to graphically model complex organizations, simulate strategic decision pathways, and determine optimal outcomes as along with the steps to reach those outcomes. This capability can have a profound impact on an organization's ability to survive and establish competitive advantages.
