"Critical mass matters... While accelerating internal growth, CGI targets acquisitions of other companies... It goes without saying that we would purchase a company that shares our values, such as service quality, professional ethics and client satisfaction."

SERGE GODIN

"I can't imagine my future without CGI. In the year 2000... I'll be proud to post revenue that exceeds the $500 million mark.' This number is so ambitious that the humble Mr. Godin suggested we omit it."
