CGI Awarded “Business of the Year” by Pike County Chamber of Commerce

Troy, Alabama, April 12, 2011- Only a little over a year after opening its offices in Troy, AL, CGI has been recognized by the Pike County Chamber of Commerce as the “2011 Chamber Business of the Year.” CGI, known as one of the largest IT companies in the world, a global employer of 31,000 members, has been creating quality IT jobs in the State of Alabama, currently employing 154 members locally in Troy.

“Each year the Pike Chamber of Commerce, Inc. recognizes outstanding members of our organization for their exceptional business practices and contributions to our community,” said Adam Drinkwater, Pike County Chamber of Commerce Chairman. “We are extremely honored to award the 2011 Business of the Year to CGI. The company is an excellent example of how a business can become an integral part of our community.”

The award for CGI comes on the heels of the recent ribbon cutting and dedication ceremony of University Park with Gov. Robert Bentley and Troy University Chancellor, Jack Hawkins. It is another milestone “reaffirming CGI’s commitment to the community and our clients through dedication, innovation and entrepreneurial spirit,” said Nazzic Turner, CGI Sr. Vice President and General Manager. “We are proud to be making a positive impact in Troy by continuing to grow our team and hire local talent to create highly-skilled, quality jobs in rural America.”
