

HR and Payroll BPS

Blending human operations with intelligent automation to deliver a superior employee experience

Ensuring the workplace experience reflects an organization's brand and values is a top priority for many enterprises. As a result, next-generation HR and payroll outsourcing services must go beyond cost reduction and take a strategic view to drive efficiencies and business outcomes through HR and payroll transformation.

At CGI, our business process services (BPS) transform HR and payroll operations for both governments and businesses to achieve greater performance, value and growth. We enable streamlined, employee-focused HR and payroll processes that reduce transactional overhead. Using automation, artificial intelligence and other technologies, blended with human delivery, we create digital, real-time employee experiences that positively impact your business outcomes.

Our portfolio of services includes employee life cycle management, recruitment, learning administration, benefits management, HR analytics, time and attendance, and payroll processing. We can outsource your entire HR landscape or provide point solutions to meet your specific needs.

We deliver smart HR and payroll operations using best-in-class technology, including enterprise software, robotic process automation, intelligent automation, machine learning, and data analytics. You benefit from flexible, scalable and resilient services and operational expertise delivered through onshore, nearshore and/or offshore delivery models.

Case in point

Delivering a robust payroll system for Royal Botanical Gardens Edinburgh

CGI delivered a fully managed payroll system for Royal Botanical Garden Edinburgh (RBGE) that provides comprehensive services, including automatic handling of absence management, seamless onboarding and off-boarding, process analysis, data management, recruitment, and real-time reporting. RBGE employees receive not only electronic payslips, but also can access their own password-secured payroll information to claim benefits, manage pensions, or apply for mortgages.

The payroll system provides the highest standards of security, along with a full disaster recovery capability. In addition, CGI's payroll knowledge and expertise helps RBGE remain current with ever-changing legislation.
