

Agile Digital Services

CGI

Accelerate your digital transformation

Realise your digital transformation ambitions, no matter the scale or the complexity of the challenge.

Rapidly shifting digital service expectations are transforming the needs of customers, citizens and employees.

Faced with increasing competition from new entrants and disrupters, your organisation must apply technology effectively to increase resilience and realise your digital transformation ambitions.

CGI Agile Digital Services provide you with the end-to-end capability you need, when you need it, how you need it.

Our wealth of experience and expertise in Agile delivery means that we understand what the obstacles are and have a proven track record of delivering results across sectors.

So, together, we can overcome the specific challenges you face and provide seamless digital experiences that deliver transformational business value.

We understand the challenges you face:

Responding to fast changing consumer product and digital service expectations

Fierce competition and rapid innovation, including new (digital-first) entrants

Ongoing complexities of integrating new and legacy systems to achieve required operational capabilities

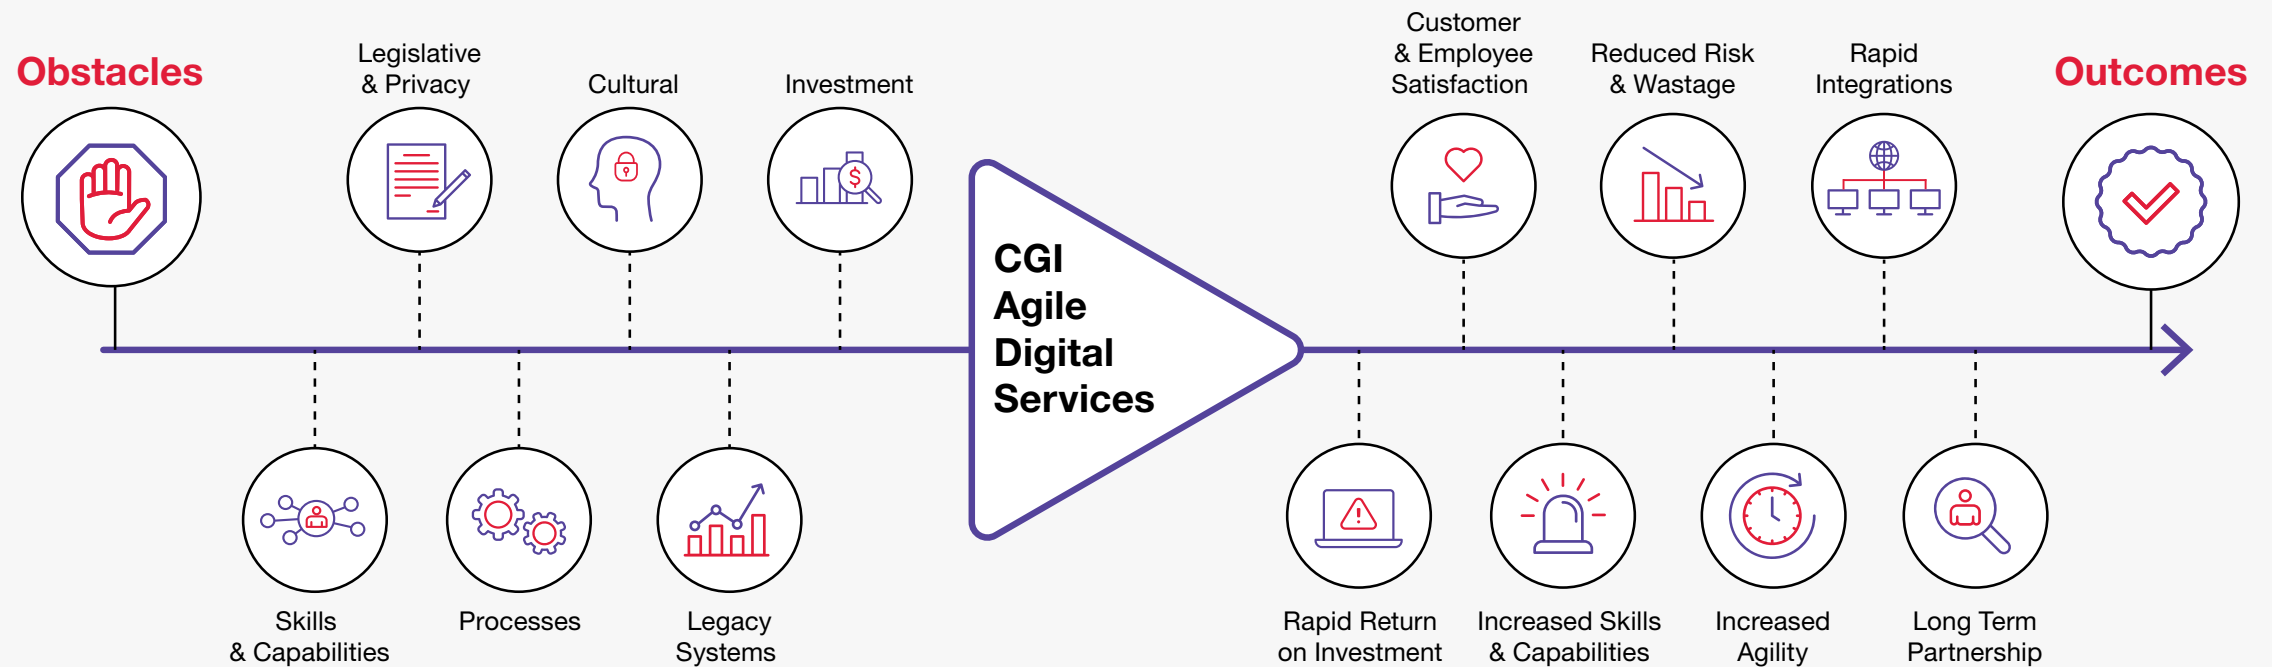

Adapting working practices and acquiring the talent needed to achieve required future states

Increasing need to address risks and uncertainty whilst reducing OpEx

Overcoming organisational challenges to deliver valuable outcomes

CGI Agile Digital Services enable clients to rapidly and efficiently increase their organisational agility by providing the Agile resources and expertise needed to power your digital transformation:

What is CGI Agile Digital Services?

Deploy our trusted Agile delivery experts to get the resources and expertise you need, when you need it.

Start-up Agile Squads

Introduce and prove the benefits of Agile work methods

- Assess your agility status with CGI Agile Maturity Assessment.
- Our team will assess the current state and build a backlog for the value streams/product(s).
- Implement a Proof of Concept to prove that features and business value can be delivered dynamically, using Agile practices.
- Review results, determine improvements and identify how to efficiently scale capabilities across the organisation.

Add Agile Squads

Integrate teams to augment and accelerate your transformation

- CGI brings highly skilled cross functional Agile Squads to accelerate delivery of customer value.
- Experience leading scaling Agile frameworks.
- A multi-sourcing procurement approach that emphasises outcomes over outputs.
- A hybrid model, which can include CGI supporting internal staff with key expertise, skills and coaching.

Coach Agile Squads

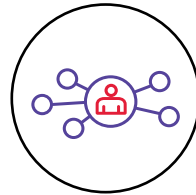

Increase your team's agility with our Agile Experts

- Benefit from CGI's expertise in Agile delivery.
- Select from a range of specialisations to meet your specific needs.
- Continuous learning and upskilling - Train and coach your teams to do it themselves.
- Our coaches work with your Agile teams to deliver demonstrable increases in business agility.
- Promotes an information sharing, performance orientated culture.
