

BIOGRAPHY

James Peake

Senior Vice-President, CGI Federal

As Senior Vice-President, Dr. James Peake focuses on government and health markets across CGI's U.S. and global businesses. As a highly respected public and private sector executive, his unparalleled expertise as the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, a U.S. Army Lieutenant General, and a private sector healthcare executive helps our clients achieve their citizen, customer, and patient-centric goals. Dr. Peake also serves as an Officer/Director of the CGI Federal Board of Directors.

Formerly, Dr. Peake served as the President of CGI Federal, leading the more than $1 billion CGI Federal business to drive profitable growth and the delivery of a broad portfolio of technology and business services to clients across the civilian, defense and intelligence sectors of the U.S. Federal Government.

Prior to joining CGI, Dr. Peake was nominated by President George W. Bush to be Secretary of Veterans Affairs on October 30, 2007. He was unanimously confirmed by the Senate on December 14, 2007, and served from December 2007 through January 2009.

Dr. Peake was the principal advocate for veterans in the U.S. government and directed the nation's second largest cabinet department, responsible for a nationwide system of health care services, benefits programs, and national cemeteries for America's veterans and dependents. During his tenure, the VA employed more than 280,000 people at hundreds of medical centers, nursing homes, benefits offices, and national cemeteries throughout the country. The VA's budget for fiscal year 2009 was $97.5 billion.

A St. Louis, Mo., native, Dr. Peake received his Bachelor of Science degree from U.S. Military Academy at West Point in 1966 and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army Infantry. Following service in Vietnam with the 101st Airborne Division where he was awarded the Silver Star, a Bronze Star with "V" device and the Purple Heart with oak leaf cluster, Dr. Peake entered medical school at Cornell University in New York. He was awarded a medical doctorate in 1972. Dr. Peake began his Army medical career as a general surgery resident at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He retired from the Army in 2004, following service as a general surgeon, cardiac surgeon and commander of several medical organizations culminating in his appointment as U.S. Army Surgeon General from 2000 to 2004. As Army Surgeon General, Dr. Peake commanded 50,000 medical personnel and 187 army medical facilities worldwide. Prior to that, he served as Commanding General of the U.S. Army Medical Department Center and School, one of the largest medical training facilities in the world with 30,000 students annually.
